Saying Goodbye to Y6

We say Goodbye today to all our Y6 children.

I have watched you grow and flourish during the years here at St Patrick's.

I wish all of you good health and happiness for the future and may all your dreams come true.

I wish you every success in the future.

First day back after the Summer Holidays

School re-opens on Tuesday 3rd September 2024.

First Holy Communion – Message from Father Albert

If any Parents of Catholic children from Y4 upwards who would like their child/ren to make their First Holy Communion next year in 2025 please either inform Father Albert at St Patrick's Church or inform the School Office.

Thank you.

Father Albert's 70th Birthday

At the end of the Y6 leavers the children and staff surprised Father Albert by singing Happy 70th Birthday to him and each class made him a card with special Birthday wishes from all the children.

Nursery Graduation – Summer 2024

Thank you to everyone who attended the Foundation Stage Graduation assemblies this week. It was lovely to see all the little children in their cap and gowns. They looked so grown up. The children each received their certificate and we look forward to them joining Reception class in September either here at St Patrick's or their new schools. Teachers also showed a slide show of their memories over the year and the children sang beautifully. Well Done everyone.

Thank you to All Our school community

Thank you to all the children, staff, parents & Governors for all that you do in supporting your children's learning. I want to express my gratitude for your guidance, and support throughout this year. Have a wonderful, safe and restful summer break.

God Bless Mrs McKeown

Notice from Mrs Fox

I would like to wish everyone a happy holiday & restful break!

Hopefully we get some sunshine!

Notice from Mrs Craig

We had a lovely local walk to Firth Park on Thursday and sadly said goodbye to Oliver. We wish Oliver and his family all the best with their new house move and as he starts his new school in September.

Afterschool Clubs

From September we will have some more exciting Afterschool Clubs for children to take part in!
