I trust in God and wait calmly and with self-control.*

School Pantomime

The whole school went to the Pantomime on Wednesday 13th December for the first time. The FOSP group did all the fundraising for this momentous occasion.

All staff played their part to ensure the children arrived and returned safely. The children had an amazing, enriched experience in a real theatre and for some it was their very first time seeing a pantomime live on stage.

We just want to say a Big Thank you to everyone for making this happen especially our FOSP group.

Parish Lunch & Christmas Jumper/Dinner Day

Our Parishioners and Bishop Ralph will be joining the school for Christmas Jumper / Christmas Dinner day on Wednesday 20th December. The staff will also join their classes for lunch in the dining hall on that day.

FS1, FS2 & KS1 Nativities

Please get your tickets at Reception.

Free Friday Smiles

Today we gave away free Friday smiles.

Smiling helps you appear more approachable and trustworthy.

Smiling makes people more likely to want to help you if you're struggling.

So next time you're feeling low, don't be afraid to give smiling a try.

Online Safety Notice

Please see the PDF attached which talks about the pros and cons of screen time and offers some recommendations surrounding the subject.
