Entrance: Hosanna to the Son of David; blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, the King of Israel.
 Hosanna in the highest.

Collect: Almighty ever living God, who as an example of humility for the human race to follow caused our Saviour to take flesh and submit to the Cross, graciously grant that we may heed his lesson of patient suffering and so merit a share in his resurrection. Who lives and reigns.

Reading: A reading from the Book of Isaiah 50:4-7
I did not cover my face against insult, I know I shall not be shamed.

The Lord has given me a disciple's tongue. So that I may know how to reply to the wearied he provides me with speech. Each morning, he wakes me to hear, to listen like a disciple. The Lord has opened my ear. For my part I made no resistance, neither did I turn away. I offered my back to those who struck me, my cheeks to those who tore at my beard; I did not cover my face against insult and spittle. The Lord comes to my help, so that I am untouched by insults. So too, I set my face like flint; I know I shall not be shamed.

The Word of the Lord.

RESPONSE:Psalm 21.My, God, my God, why have you forsaken me.

All who see me deride me. They curl their lips they toss their heads.

He trusted in the Lord, let him save him; let him release him if this is friend. R/

Many dogs have surrounded me, a band of the wicked beset me,

They tear holes in my hand and my feet I can count every one of my bones. R/

They divide my clothing among them. They cast lots for my robe.

O Lord do not leave me alone, my strength, make haste to help me. R/

I will tell of your name to my brethren and praise you where they are assembled.

You who fear the Lord give him praise; all sons of Jacob give him glory,

Revere him, Israel's sons. R/*Second Reading: A reading from the Letter of St Paul to the Philippians*2. 6-11He humbled himself, but God raised him high

His state was divine, yet Christ did not cling to his equality with God but emptied himself to assume the condition of a slave, and became as men are, and being as all men are, he was humbler yet, even to accepting death, death on a cross. But God raised him high and gave him the name which is above all other names so that all beings in the heavens, on earth and in the underworld, should bend the knee at the name of Jesus and that every tongue should acclaim Jesus Christ as Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

The Word of the Lord

Acclamation. Glory and praise to you O Christ. king of eternal glory! Christ was humbler yet, even to accepting death on a cross. But God raised him high and gave him the name which is above all names Glory and praise to you O Christ king of eternal glory!

SVP. On the last Sunday of every month, the SVP have a Coffee morning after Mass at St Patrick's. All are welcome. They are also having a stall at Firth Park Methodist Church Fayre at Easter. This is to raise funds for the Church SVP St Vincent de Paul's Local Oversight Group (LOG) is seeking a volunteer with financial experience to help review their management accounts and ensure accuracy. This is a light touch role with no weekly commitment and is not a management or trustee role. LOG members provide oversight and support but have no legal responsibility - management remains with the charity's national office. The LOG meets on a Thursday morning every other month, one in three being in person and the others on Zoom. The charity provides free furniture to families and individuals in poverty across Sheffield, as well as offering emergency food parcels and running a low-cost food pantry. If you would like to discuss this further, please contact Tracy Haycox at the project on 0114 270 3990.
