Entrance: The merciful love of the Lord fills the earth; by the word of the Lord the heavens were made. Alleluia

Collect: Almighty ever-living God, lead us to a share in the joys of heaven, so that the humble flock may reach where the brave Shepherd has gone before. Who lives and reigns with you in the unity.....

First Reading:

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles
"God has made him both Lord and Christ."

2: 14a, 36-41

Peter, standing with the eleven, lifted up his voice and addressed them, "Let all the house of Israel therefore know for certain that God has made him both Lord and Christ this Jesus whom you crucified." Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, "Brothers, what should we do?" And Peter said to them, "Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is for you, and for your children, and for for all who are far off, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to himself." And with many other words he bore witness and continued to exhort them saying, "Save yourselves from this crooked generation." So those who received his word were baptized, and there were added that day about three thousand souls.

The Word of the Lord

RESPONSE:

The Lord is my shepherd: there is nothing I shall want.

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want,
 Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose;
 Near restful waters he leads me; he revives my soul. R/

He guides me along the right path, for the sake of his name. Though I should walk in the valley.
 Of the shadow of death. No evil would fear, for you are with me.
 Your crook and your staff will give me comfort . R/

You have prepared a table before me in the sight of my foes.
 My head you have anointed with oil; My cup is overflowing. R/

Second Reading: A reading from the First Letter of St Peter 2: 20b-25
“You have returned to the Shepherd of your souls”

Beloved: If when you do good and suffer for it you endure, this is a gracious thing in the sight of God. For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you might follow in his steps. “He committed no sin, neither was deceit found in his mouth.” When he was reviled, he did not revile in return; when he suffered, he did not threaten, but continued entrusting himself to him who judges justly. He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin, and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. For you were straying like sheep, but have now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls

The Word of the Lord

Acclamation: Alleluia, Alleluia. I am the good shepherd says the Lord: I know my own, and my own know me. .
Alleluia.

GOSPEL: A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John 10: 1-10
“I am the door of the Sheep”

At that time Jesus said Truly, truly, I say to you, he who does who does not enter the sheepfold by the door but climbs in by another way that man is a thief and a robber. But he who enters by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. To him the gatekeeper opens. The sheep hear his voice, and he calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has brought out all his own, he goes before them, and the sheep follow him for they know his voice. A stranger they will not follow but they will flee from him, for they do not know the voice of strangers.” This figure of speech Jesus used with them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them. So, Jesus again said to them, “Truly truly, I say to you, I am the door for the sheep. All who came before me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not listen to them. I am the door. If anyone enters by me, he will be saved and will go out and find pasture. The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life and have it abundantly.

The Gospel of the Lord.
