First Reading:

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

8: 5-8, 14-17

“They laid hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.”

In those days, Philip went down to the city of Samaria and proclaimed to them the Christ. And the crowds with one accord paid attention to what was being said by Philip, when they heard him and saw the signs that he did, for unclean spirits, crying with a loud voice came out of many who had them, and many who were paralysed or lame were healed. So, there was much joy in that city. Now when the apostles at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent to them Peter and John, who came down and prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit for he had not yet fallen on any of them; but they had only been baptised in the name of the Lord Jesus. Then they laid their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.

The Word of the Lord

RESPONSE:

Cry out with joy to God, all the earth.

Psalm 66

Cry out with joy to God, all the earth; O sing to the glory of his name
 O render him glorious praise. Say to God, How awesome your deeds! R/

Before you all the earth shall bow down, shall sing to your name!
 Come and see the works of God: awesome his deeds among the children of men. R/.

He turned the sea into dry land; they passed through the fiver on foot.
 Let our joy, then, be in him; he rules forever by his might. R/

Come and hear, all who fear God; I will tell what he did for my soul.
 Blest by God, who did not reject my prayer, nor withhold from me his merciful love. R/

Second Reading:A reading from the First Letter of St Peter*3: 15-18“Put to death in the flesh, he was made alive in the Spirit”

Beloved: In your hearts honour Christ as Lord as holy, always being prepared to make a defence to anyone who asks you for a reason for the hope that is in you, yet do it with gentleness and respect having a good conscience so that, when you are slandered, those who revile your good behaviour in Christ may be put to shame. For it is better to suffer for doing good, if that should be God's will, than for doing evil. For Christ also suffered for sins, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh but made alive in the spirit,

The Word of the LordAcclamation:

Alleluia, Alleluia. If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, says the Lord; and my Father will love him, and we will come to him. Alleluia.

GOSPEL:A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John*14: 15-21“I am the way, the truth and the life”

At that time: Jesus said to his disciples, If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him for he dwells with you, and will be in you. “I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you. Yet a little while the world will see me no more, but you will see me; because I live, you also will live. In that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. Whoever has my commandments and keeps them he it is who loves me, and he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love them and manifest myself to them

The Gospel of the Lord.ACCLAMATION: Save us Saviour of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free.*COMMUNION ANTIPHON: If you love me, keep my commandments, says the Lord, and I will ask the Father And he will send you another Paraclete, to abide with you for ever. Alleluia
