Entrance: Have mercy on me, O Lord, for I cry to you all day long, O Lord,
You are good and forgiving, full of mercy to all who call to you.

Collect: God of might, giver of every good gift, put into our hearts the love of your name, so that, by deepening our sense of reverence, you may nurture in us what is good and, by your watchful care, keep safe what you have nurtured. Through our Lord Jesus Christ your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen

First Reading: A reading from the Prophet Jeremiah

20: 7-9

"I will place on his shoulder the key of the house of David."

O Lord, you have enticed me, and I was enticed; you have overpowered me, and you have prevailed. I have become a laughingstock all day long; everyone mocks me. For whenever I speak, I must cry out, I must shout, "Violence and destruction!" For the word of the Lord has become for me a reproach and derision all day long. If I say, "I will not mention him, or speak any more in his name," then within me there is something like a burning fire shut up in my bones; I am weary with holding it in, and I cannot.

The Word of the Lord.

RESPONSE:

For you my soul is thirsting, O Lord, my God

Psalm 63

O God, you are my God; at dawn I seek you; for you my soul is thirsting.

For you my flesh is pining, like a dry, weary land without water. R/.

I have come before you in the sanctuary, to behold your strength and your glory.:

Your loving mercy is better than life; my lips will speak your praise. R.

I will bless you all my life; in your name I will lift up my hands.

My soul shall be filled as with a banquet; with joyful lips, my mouth shall praise you. R/.

For you have been my strength; in the shadow of your wings, I rejoice.

My soul clings fast to you; your right hand holds me up. R/

Second Reading: A reading from the First Letter of St Paul to the Romans

12. 1-2

"From him and through him and to him are all things"

I appeal to you therefore, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God—what is good and acceptable and perfect.

The Word of the Lord

Acclamation: Alleluia; May the God of our Lord Jesus Chris enlighten the eyes of our hearts that we may know what is the hope to which he has called us. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Matthew.

16: 21-27.

"You are Peter, I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven."

At that time on, Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and undergo great suffering at the hands of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, "God forbid it, Lord! This must never happen to you." But he turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me; for you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things." Then Jesus told his disciples, "If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it. For what will it profit them if they gain the whole world but forfeit their life? Or what will they give in return for their life? "For the Son of Man is to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay everyone for what has been done.

The Gospel of the Lord.

ACCLAMATION Save us Saviour of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: How great is the goodness, Lord, that you keep for those, who fear you.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION: Renewed by this bread from the heavenly table, we beseech you, Lord that, being the food of charity, it may confirm our hearts and stir us to serve you in our neighbour. Through Christ our Lord.
